

The second annual PEOC will be held on April 20th, virtually (see zoom link). This is a day for updates from our invited speakers as well as sharing of ideas by the participants. We look forward to your participation. Please register on EventBrite.

S. Nicole Culos-Reed
Co-Chairs, PEOC

Miriam Götte

Agenda

Zoom Link provided upon your registration.

Start Time: 8:00am – Calgary Alberta Canada time; 4:00pm Essen Germany time
Welcome from co-chairs, Miriam Götte and Nicole Culos-Reed

- 8:10 – Insights in pediatric exercise-oncology: Looking into the past, present and future
David Mizrahi, Research Fellow, The Daffodil Centre, the University of Sydney, a joint venture with Cancer Council, NSW, Australia
- 8:35 – Implementation of Physical Activity for Children and adolescents on Treatment
(IMPACT) intervention and trial overview and update
Amanda Wurz, Assistant Professor, University of the Fraser Valley, Canada
- 9:00 – An update on the training of fitness professionals in pediatric oncology
Nicole Culos-Reed, Professor, University of Calgary, Canada
- 9:25 – PACCS - The Physical Activity and fitness in Childhood Cancer Survivors study:
An overview of findings
Hanne Cathrine Lie, Associate Professor, Department of Behavioural Medicine,
University of Oslo, Norway

BREAK – 9:50-10:00

10:00 – Exercise in adolescents and young adults diagnosed with cancer: What is going on?
Maxime Caru, Postdoctoral Scholar, Penn State College of Medicine, USA

10:25 – From diagnosis to survivorship: Maintaining exercise programs during the covid pandemic and beyond
Sabine Kesting, Research Fellow, Department of Pediatrics and Children's Cancer Research Center, TUM School of Medicine, Kinderklinik München Schwabing and Chair of Preventive Pediatrics, Department of Sport and Health Sciences, Technical University of Munich, Germany

10:50 – FORTEe – A european trial to fight childhood cancer
Elias Dreismickenbecker, Research Associate, University Medical Center of the European Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz. Germany

11:15 – Whiteboard brainstorming session – all participants
Discussion on research and implementation/knowledge translation needs; other work to highlight/consider, any further feedback or questions based on content presented today

11:50 – Wrap up from the PEOC Co-Chairs
Nicole Culos-Reed and Miriam Götte

Zoom sign off, 12:00 pm Calgary Alberta time; 8:00 pm Essen Germany time.

